Please notify your broker to make this transaction. Only you can start this process.

All contributions are tax-deductible to the fullest extent provided by law. Every effort will be made to sell stock donations as quickly as possible. For tax purposes, the date of your gift corresponds to the date it arrives in our possession, and we will send you a receipt stating the name of the stock, the number of shares, and the fair market value on the date it was received. The donor should be aware of possible tax implications.

Please contact your tax advisor for complete tax deductibility rules.
